

Inspiring the Leader in You

A half day Workshop facilitated by Diana Stowers

In this world of automation and unprecedented change, there has never been a greater need for differentiation through reputation and thought-leadership. We explore ways to lead, influence, engage and communicate your vision to others.

Inspiring the Leader in You is tailor-made for emerging leaders, packed full of tools to create successful teams and drive return on investment (with minimal time away from your desk).

The class is small and highly interactive with the opportunity to exchange ideas from the comfort of our award-winning Ipswich Academy. Participants raved about our last workshop:

"Diana is a great presenter" .. "Very motivating presentation style"

Course Outline

- The art of engaging leadership
- Identify your communication and relationship profile
- Bring out the best in your team by communicating in a way they understand
- The connection between communication, staff loyalty and trust
- Strategies to enhance consistency of leadership behaviours
- The importance of sharing organisational vision

Key Outcomes

Focussed on new and emerging leaders, you will gain a new perspective (and understanding) of:

- Lead successful teams through engaging communication and consistent leadership
- Communicate your organisation's vision and values
- Create an inclusive, change-ready culture

Embark on a Leadership Action Plan (which can only be described as transformational).
