| DEFINITIONS: REST BREAK (PAID): 3 to <8 hours per day: employees must be allowed a 10 minute rest interval (paid) at a time suitable to business operations. 8 hours+ per day: employees must be allowed 2 x 10 minute rest intervals (paid) at a time suitable to business operations. MEAL BREAK (UNPAID): for every 5 hours worked per day, a 30 minute meal break (unpaid) is required to be taken before resuming work (excluding continuous shift workers who are entitled to a 20 minute paid meal break per shift). PLEASE NOTE: Overtime penalties may be incurred when working in excess of 8 hours/day and/or 38 hours/week (or 76 hours/fortnight depending on your award) - no work should be undertaken outside of your ordinary hours unless requested (and authorised) by your supervisor. Casual employees are entitled to a minimum payment of four hours' work per shift. The casual hourly rate is inclusive of a 25% casual loading and therefore, you will not be eligible to be paid for any form of leave; redundancy; or public holidays if you are not at work. | | | | | | | | | | | | |
